Hurricane Katrina completely destroyed The Father Ryan House, word is the owner will be rebuilding.. something.

The Father Ryan House Bed and Breakfast Inn is a National Historic Landmark located in Biloxi, Mississippi. Built circa 1841, it is one of the oldest remaining structures on the Gulf Coast and the one time home of Father Abram Ryan, Poet Laureate of the Confederacy. The House and grounds have been painstakingly restored and furnished according to that period.

Each room and suite has its own unique character and charm. You may choose to enjoy the spectacular view from the Jefferson Room and pamper yourself with a whirlpool bath or relax in the stately elegance and romance of the Father Ryan Rooms which are furnished with exquisitely hand crafted beds and antiques dating back to the early 1800's.

All accommodations include a full complimentary breakfast, a private bath, cable television and a beautiful view of the Gulf of Mexico, the Gardens or the courtyard and Pool.

Situated on the beautiful white sand beach of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Guest may visit the nearby historic home of Jefferson Davis at Beauvoir, or Fort Massachusetts on Ship Island. Enjoy great fishing off our beautiful coastal islands, experience trolling on a working shrimp boat, visit the George Ohr and Walter Anderson museums, both minutes away, or golf on one of the Gulf Coast's 18 golf courses.
