

Mississippi Gulf Coast Casinos

by

Mississippi Beach-once hidden treasure-now offers greater riches than its tropical climate and 26 mile-long beach: it has casino gaming!

Let us show you some of the fun things to do here! Click Here to view.

NOTE that after Hurricane Katrina damaged all the casinos, they are only now starting to re-open.

Since August, 1992, casinos have become a major addition to the area's vibrant tourism industry. For a state rich in tradition and history, opening its doors to this new attraction has created even more excitement for visitors from all over the nation and the world

Tourists can now enjoy casinos offering gaming comparable to Las Vegas and Atlantic City-including "comps," the industry's word for complimentary such as meals, hotel accommodations, beverages and limo service. The Gulf Coast casinos also offer high limits and liberal rules, like many counterparts in other areas of the country, but with the unmistakable Southern charm that is sure to please even the most serious players.

Many Casinos are now open, Boomtown, IP Hotel and Casino, Isle of Capri Casino Resort, Palace Casino Resort, Treasure Bay Casino.
